I want to thank former and current ASLTA Board officers and the members who shared and sent all the attached files for the handbook.
   ▪ 501c(3) process and approval provided guidelines that are reflected in the revised Policy and Procedures Handbook.

I. 501(c)3 Status
   • November 2011 – 501(c)3 paperwork was revised with the help of Seattle attorney Russ Mead, and submitted to the IRS. It sailed through, and in March 2012 we received our notice of tax-exempt status effective October 2003 (the year we were established).
   • Due to a computer error, our status was automatically revoked in May 2012. We received notice in May 2013. Because the IRS has no process for appeal, the only option was to refill all 501(c)3 paperwork over again with current information.
   • The paperwork was complete and submitted on June 27, 2013, requesting the IRS reinstate our exempt status retroactive to when it was revoked.
   • We have every expectation that the paper will again be approved without question

II. Accounting Practices
   • Several revisions to the process for accounting for our 3 programs were made to allow for better documentation.
   • QuickBooks was updated to follow standard accounting practices.

III. Shopping Cart
   • After several attempts to get an online membership payment system set up, we finally were able to work out a solution with ZenCart.
   • The online system has been heavily used for membership dues, conference registration and evaluation program fees.
