c. Follow-up meeting with Southern California (SoCal) Chapter

We had a great meeting with SoCal Chapter Christy Lively and Kristen Hall conference chair of 2019. Went through the conference 2019 financial report. Everyone agreed that the overall conference was enjoyable. It was a good meeting. Suggested for SoCal chapter: do a shared collaboration with duties but Robert Rules of Order requires officers. If they were to do this, they would eventually become a chapter again with officers.

d. Two-hour Board/Committee training from Mark Apodaca, Parliamentarian. Sunday the 26th at 4:00 EST, we will have this two hour training.

e. Board’s virtual meetings (Plan A or Plan B) & Meeting schedules in the team drive. Board’s Tasks-To-Do List in the team drive

7. Professional Development Director Flores

- Restricted Funds Committee

Lynn Jacobowitz, Petra Horn, Edna Johnson, Molly Estes, and Lorraine Hazel Waldren fund, from deaf grandma. Lynn donated to ASLTA. Asking us board if we are familiar with this. Amy June thinks it went to Schwab as we cannot afford to keep separate accounts. Jason found that info, year 2000 was for deaf children, deaf education and interpreters, but did not state the amount. Jason will try to find more information.

Restricted fund meeting was Friday. Had ideas like DeVIA, the theme for ASL for K12. Idea was to make sure the funds would be returned as a growth. $14K, use $4K ASLEHL use

- Florida ASLTA Conference in 2023

Asking if we should ask FASLTA to get moving for the conference. Amy June suggested Lorraine to tell FASLTA to look around but with the idea of money issues in the back of their heads because of COVID19. Janice suggested maybe we use universities as location for conferences instead of hotels. Jason thinks IPPG should be given now. Christine wants FASLTA not to lose motivation but instead find other ways and ideas to save money.

Summary of Ohio Conference Chair Meeting:

They are still in progress with things such as logo which will be done by May 15, website, positions on committee mostly filled, sponsorship . Theme is ASL Professionals Thrive Through Collaboration. They will have more meetings this coming Tuesday with the Meal and CEU, Contegorie chairs. The committee is working hard to get sponsors because money is tight right now, they are hoping things will get better by the fall. Both Lori and Arlon shared concerns about presenters that might have the same topic or same presenters, but board suggested that it might be a good thing so that those who missed the conference can go to their workshops. Interactive presentations need to be identified if members want that. Lori says that they will use ITP and ASL students for registration and wondered if their registration would be waived. People from the Deaf club will help as well. Jason cautioned waiving too many registration. An idea might be that club pays for them or let volunteers go in a workshop. However, the volunteer chair has to be watchful. Lori asked when does publication start? James says as soon as possible. Video from 22 minutes will be edited to 5-7 minutes and posted on their FB page. Lori also asked what kind of program does the treasurer need to use, the answer was that he can use Excel. Jason will work with him. FB page will be posted very soon so that people can save the date but with understanding that registration, etc will be added later. David thinks they need to start PR now.

8. Evaluation and Certification Director Rowley
   ● Waiting on the screen, recruited evaluation people, some issues with technology, and many things have been happening. Need to fix certification design.

9. Chapter Affiliation Director VACANT
   No report.

10. Communications Director David Martin
   No report.

11. ASL Honor Society Coordinator Sharkey
   ● Still have graduation orders, etc. for ASLHS and the competition is extended. Jessica Parker will replace Christine and has been involved in ASLHS for years. She is willing to become certified. Robin N. Wood is taking over the competition. One person wants to resign eventually, so would need to replace her. Face to face is being on hold and check on status each month. They want to have weekly videos and get scholarships.
